payments

The following required payments must be made on time. Delayed payments will result in halted services until payments resume. Phil Seaton reserves the right to cancel contracts more than 9 months overdue. Once made, payments are nonrefundable. After the first payment has been made, your wedding date will be reserved and no other weddings will be booked on that date. If your wedding date is changed or cancelled, refunds or coverage of an alternate date will be at Phil Seaton's discretion. Payment 1 is due at contract signing. Payment 2 must be postmarked at least 2 weeks before your wedding date. Payment 3 is considered payment for album design and production services, and is due with the client's selection of images for the Bridal album. If images are not selected by December 31, 2008, this contract is considered terminated and any album purchase will be subject to current a la carte pricing from Living Photography.

- Phil Seaton, Owner of Living Photography, is the official photographer retained to perform the photographic services requested on this contract.
- Phil Seaton reserves the right to use negatives, digital files and/or reproductions for display, publication, or other purposes. The client may make reproductions at his or her own cost from the included "high resolution DVD."
- Phil Seaton agrees to perform the services listed above to the best of his ability. No refunds will be made for missed photographs during the wedding. He will be accommodating if the client is not satisfied, but provides no financial guarantees.
- In the event of a postponement or cancellation of the wedding, all deposits are nonrefundable and coverage of another date is subject to availability.
- Phil Seaton takes the utmost care with respect to the exposure, development, and delivery of photographs. However, in the unlikely event that he fails to comply with the terms of this contract, due to any event or act outside his control (including sickness, hospitalization, error by any subcontractors such as photographic labs, postal error, etc.), liability is limited to a refund of deposits.
- There is a fee of $45 for any returned check. Delivery of all products and services described in this contract will be halted until this fee is paid.
- This contract is not valid until signed by both the photographer and the client.
- This contract is an agreement between Phil Seaton, sole proprietor of Living Photography, and the person who signs the contract.
